

designing women

designing women is a nonprofit organization which has been bridging art and community since 1991.

Our mission is to showcase high quality arts and crafts by women artisans and benefit local, nonprofit services that support women and families. In past years we have worked with breast cancer support groups, transition to work programs, art/therapy retreats, shelters, health initiatives, and counseling programs.

Operating expenses for the shows come from artisans. Proceeds from food sales and the $2.00 suggested door donations go directly to the participating nonprofit groups, giving them an opportunity to get the word out about their programs and to raise funds.

We strive to keep the shows fresh and to continue to give women artisans new opportunities to show their work.

In this brochure are the select artisans that make up the organization designing women.
